

Lake Kussharo

Oyakotsu-jigoku
Oyakotsu jigoku (Hot Spring) Which emits hot fumarolic gas.

Katsura tree

Some of the trees here are more than 300 years old.

Lake of blue color

We can see beautiful state of Lake Kussharo.

Yoshitsuneiwa

Entrance Clockwise rotation

Parking (free of charge)

Map Code 731 577 053

To Route 243

▲ Mt. Wakoto 216m

Kussharo Shrine (Wakoto Shine)

In Summer, we can hear a cryofrobust cicada (On cotympanamaculaticollis), a natural monument inhabiting the northernmost part of Japan.

Even in winter, we can hear the chirping of insects.

a public bath a hot spring

Complimentary hot spring. (Mixed bathing)

Entrance Anticlockwise rotation

Open-air bath a hot spring

Complimentary hot spring. (Mixed bathing)

Wakoto Nature Trail

Rotation
Clockwise ↔ Anticlockwise

Round about 2.5km about 1 hour
Vertical drop about 20m

Rules and Manners

- Do not hunt animals and plants, and do not take stones home with you.
- Do not feed wild animals.
- Keep walking on the boardwalk and walking path.
- Take all garbage home.
- Smoke in designated areas only.

Caution

- Horse-Fly · Mite, Tick · Hornet
- Lacquer tree

Wakoto Field House & Wakoto campsite

Wakoto Field House Admission free. Campsite Admission-paid.

